Hitting the right notes

KINGSTEIGNTON'S unbeaten super-featherweight boxer Jamie Speight 'can't wait' to display his talents in front of his 'home' crowd for the first time since turning professional. He is on the bill at a boxing show at Torquay's Riviera International Centre on October 24. Meanwhile, budding songstress Christina Warn, also from Kingsteignton, will be performing in two south west singing contests. She won over the judges at Torbay's Got Talent at the Babbacombe Theatre at the auditions with her rendition of Memory, from the musical Cats, and now faces competition from 11 other contestants to win the title on October 2. Christina, also got a thumbs up from judges at the Open Mic UK auditions last month. After wowing them with her stunning vocals, she will perform in the regional finals at St George's, Bristol, on October 31.
